

Plant Parts

I learned many things about plant parts. First, I learned about flowers. Flowers make seeds and attract insects. Next, I learned about the stem. The stem holds the plant up and carries water to the plant. Last, I learned about the roots. Roots suck up the water from the ground and hold the plant in the ground. That's what I learned about plant parts!